Sturgeon Bay High School

Job Posting: Head Football Coach

Type: Seasonal

Start Date: TBD

About Us:

Sturgeon Bay High School is committed to fostering a positive and competitive environment for our student-athletes. We believe in the value of teamwork, accountability, and sportsmanship. Our football program has made the playoffs the last 3 years and we are looking for a dedicated and passionate individual to have a positive impact on our student athletes and culture at Sturgeon Bay High School and within our community.

Position Overview:

We are seeking a dynamic Head Football Coach to oversee our high school football program. The ideal candidate will have a strong background in coaching, a passion for mentoring young athletes, and the ability to develop a successful and inclusive team culture. They will also be charged with the task of starting up a feeder program and continuing collaboration with the middle school program.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement training programs for athletes at all skill levels (in season and out of season).
- Organize and lead practices, games, and team meetings.
- Foster a positive and inclusive team environment that promotes sportsmanship and personal growth.
- Collaborate with athletic staff, parents, and the community to support student-athlete success on and off the field.
- Manage game strategy, player development, and in-game decision-making.
- Maintain compliance with all WIAA, Packerland, and Sturgeon Bay policies, procedures, and regulations.
- Mentor student-athletes in academics and personal development.
- Build excitement at the lower levels to increase numbers

Qualifications:

- Previous coaching experience at the high school or collegiate level preferred.
- Strong knowledge of football fundamentals, strategy, and rules.
- Excellent communication and leadership skills.
- Ability to inspire and motivate student-athletes.
