
Strictly for Business Students

Want a special way to recognize your outstanding business students? Need a way to recruit and retain students in your business classes? Want something that will help showcase their abilities and aid them in getting that special job? Want to see your school's name and students' names in a national publication? Then start a chapter of the National Business Honor Society in your high school. The National Business Honor Society is the only national honor society especially for business students.

For more information on the National Business Honor Society
contact:

National Business Education Association
1914 Association Drive
Reston, VA 20191-1596
Phone: (703) 860-8300
Fax: (703) 620-4483
www.nbea.org

National Business Honor Society

Excellence in Business

National Business Honor Society

Objectives

The objectives of the newly formed National Business Honor Society include:

To promote and recognize academic achievement in business education, leadership skills, and character development.

To help members grow ethically and socially by promoting and encouraging an interest in business.

To encourage member involvement in service learning initiatives.

Membership Requirements

Junior or senior class standing.

Current enrollment in or completion of third business course.

National minimum standard GPA (on a 4.0 scale): 3.5 in business classes; 3.0 overall. Local chapters may raise GPA requirements.

Selection by local membership committee.

Benefits of having a National Business Honor Society

It is the premier National Business Honor Society sponsored by NBEA.

It is affiliated with a national organization.

It is an opportunity for local and national recognition of outstanding business students.

It is open to all secondary schools that have business education programs.

It is open to all eligible students.

It is a positive addition to every student's portfolio and résumé.

An opportunity to promote and recognize service learning.

An opportunity to promote and recognize academic achievement.

An opportunity to promote and recognize leadership and character development.

Can enhance an interest in the study of business.

Provides a recruitment tool for colleges, universities, and businesses.

Brings national recognition to your school.

Increases visibility of the business curriculum.

A way for NBEA members to recognize outstanding business students.

Insignia, accessories, and official gear are available from one source.

Chapter Requirements

Chapter charter packs are available for easy start-up.

All business education teachers in the school must be current NBEA members.

Charter fee: $100

Annual renewal fee: $50

The National Business Honor Society is a division of the National Business Education Association. The management of this society shall be vested in the National Business Honor Society National Governing Council.